MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, OPR

25X1A

SUBJECT : The Spanish Succession Question

Lew -

1. Attached are the Director's comments about [REDACTED] recent study. Like others, he found it interesting and informative but was rather more startled than most would be over the possibility of real troubles of the post-Franco era. The way Portugal surprised us all no doubt is a factor. In any case, he wants some form of interagency consideration of this question as you will note.

2. I don't have any firm ideas about how to proceed. I know that neither INR nor OCI has anybody capable of writing an estimate on this subject, and it looks like [REDACTED] would be the logical choice. An NIE or interagency memorandum could be fairly readily adapted from this text, possibly deleting some of the detail, accelerating the pace of some of the prose so it reads faster, and expanding key judgments with a few more specifics on likely scenarios in the short, medium, and longer terms.

25X1A

3. In any case would you, [REDACTED] Irene give this some thought and let's then consult on procedures.

Remarks:

I confess having been a bit surprised at the prediction of fairly early troubles in this succession. Perhaps it was only my own lack of knowledge, but would it be useful to produce an interagency review or NIE of this important subject so we can anticipate another Portugal if it ahead or generate action to prevent it.
